

Liverpool Early Help Services

Early Help Hubs

Liverpool has 3 Locality Early Help Hubs in the City. Each Hub is located within a Children's Centre; North and Central are located in Clubmoor Children's Centre and South is located in Belle Vale Children's Centre. Each Hub is led by a consultant social worker who manages a team of outreach family support workers that complete Early Help interventions. Within each Hub, there are also a range of professionals who work together to support the Early Help agenda. This includes representatives from the police, children's services, health, housing, DWP, and school family support service.

Further information and contact details can be found via the Early Help Hub Pages on the Early Help Directory. Click here

Therapeutic Services

There are 3 therapeutic social workers based in the Early Help Hubs full time, who offer 1:1 therapeutic support for children and young people who are aged 8- 18 years.

Early Help also commissions Dialectical Behaviour therapy (DBT) and Cognitive Behaviour Therapy (CBT) via specially trained therapists.

The service is suitable for children who have:

- Complex or developmental trauma resulting in emotional dysregulation
- Identified as being at increased risk of criminality, violence, family breakdown
- Who are experiencing heightened/severe anxiety or emerging mental health needs

Please contact TSW@liverpool.gov.uk if you would like to discuss a referral and a manager will arrange a call back.

Keeping Families Together

There are 3 Outreach Family Support Workers who work with families at risk of family breakdown. The aim of the service is to provide intensive support to families to help them improve their relationships and remain living together in the long term.

By providing early intervention to address emerging difficulties we reduce the likelihood of escalation to Children's services.

The workers link with the Early Help Therapeutic Service and the Step-Forward Project to provide intensive wrap around support to address both child and parent mental health needs.

Referrals are identified by Early Help Consultant Social workers. Any queries please contact margaret.burns@liverpool.gov.uk

Step Forward Project

Early Help have access to a community based psychosocial intervention service, to provide mental health support to parents who are actively engaged with Liverpool's Early Help Children's Service.

They provide mental health psychological support that might not be available through other local mental health services, specifically designed to meet the needs of parents.

The service is offered to adults over the age of 18, who are experiencing mental health difficulties, and are not in receipt of any other mental health support.

Referrals can be made by Outreach Family Support Workers and are sent via email to stepforwardforearlyhelp@merseysc.nhs.uk

Parent Baby Relationship

Early Help have access to a to PBRS a service that works with parents and babies aged from 0 - 18 months.

Support is offered in groups or 1:1 and can include:

- parent and infant psychotherapy;
- family therapy;
- video guidance; and/or
- rewind therapy

The service helps parents and carers see and respond to their baby's present needs. This is done by supporting them to overcome blocks; for example, to reprocess early trauma or birth trauma, recognise their baby as a unique individual, & understand their developmental needs.

Referrals can be made via email by any professional providing Early Help support to a parent and baby; parentandbaby@pss.org.uk

0-9 Project

There is a team of 10 Outreach Family Support workers who are dedicated to completing complex LON3 EHATs for partner agencies.

Professionals from midwifery, health visiting and primary schools can refer to the team.

To clarify eligibility please liaise with Shobia.hussain@liverpool.gov.uk

The aim is to target the provision at the most complex families who are on the cusp of entering social care, to reduce risk and need and to prevent cases escalating to the point that they need a statutory intervention.

Referrals are restricted to pre-approved agencies. Click here

School Health Project

A team of skilled and experienced family support workers has been established to take referrals from school nurses.

The family support workers will complete early help assessments where there are concerns that warrant a Team Around the Family approach or they can offer direct work with young people with emerging mental health and attendance issues.

The aim of the project is to target provision at the most complex families who are on the cusp of entering social care, to reduce risk and need and to prevent cases escalating to social care.

Referrals can be made by school health via Click here

School Family Support Service

There are 10 Outreach Family Support Workers who are managed by a Consultant Social Worker and a Team Manager.

Schools who purchase the service are able to make referrals directly to their own dedicated Outreach Family Support Worker, provided by the service.

The family support worker will then make contact with the family to progress Early Help Support.

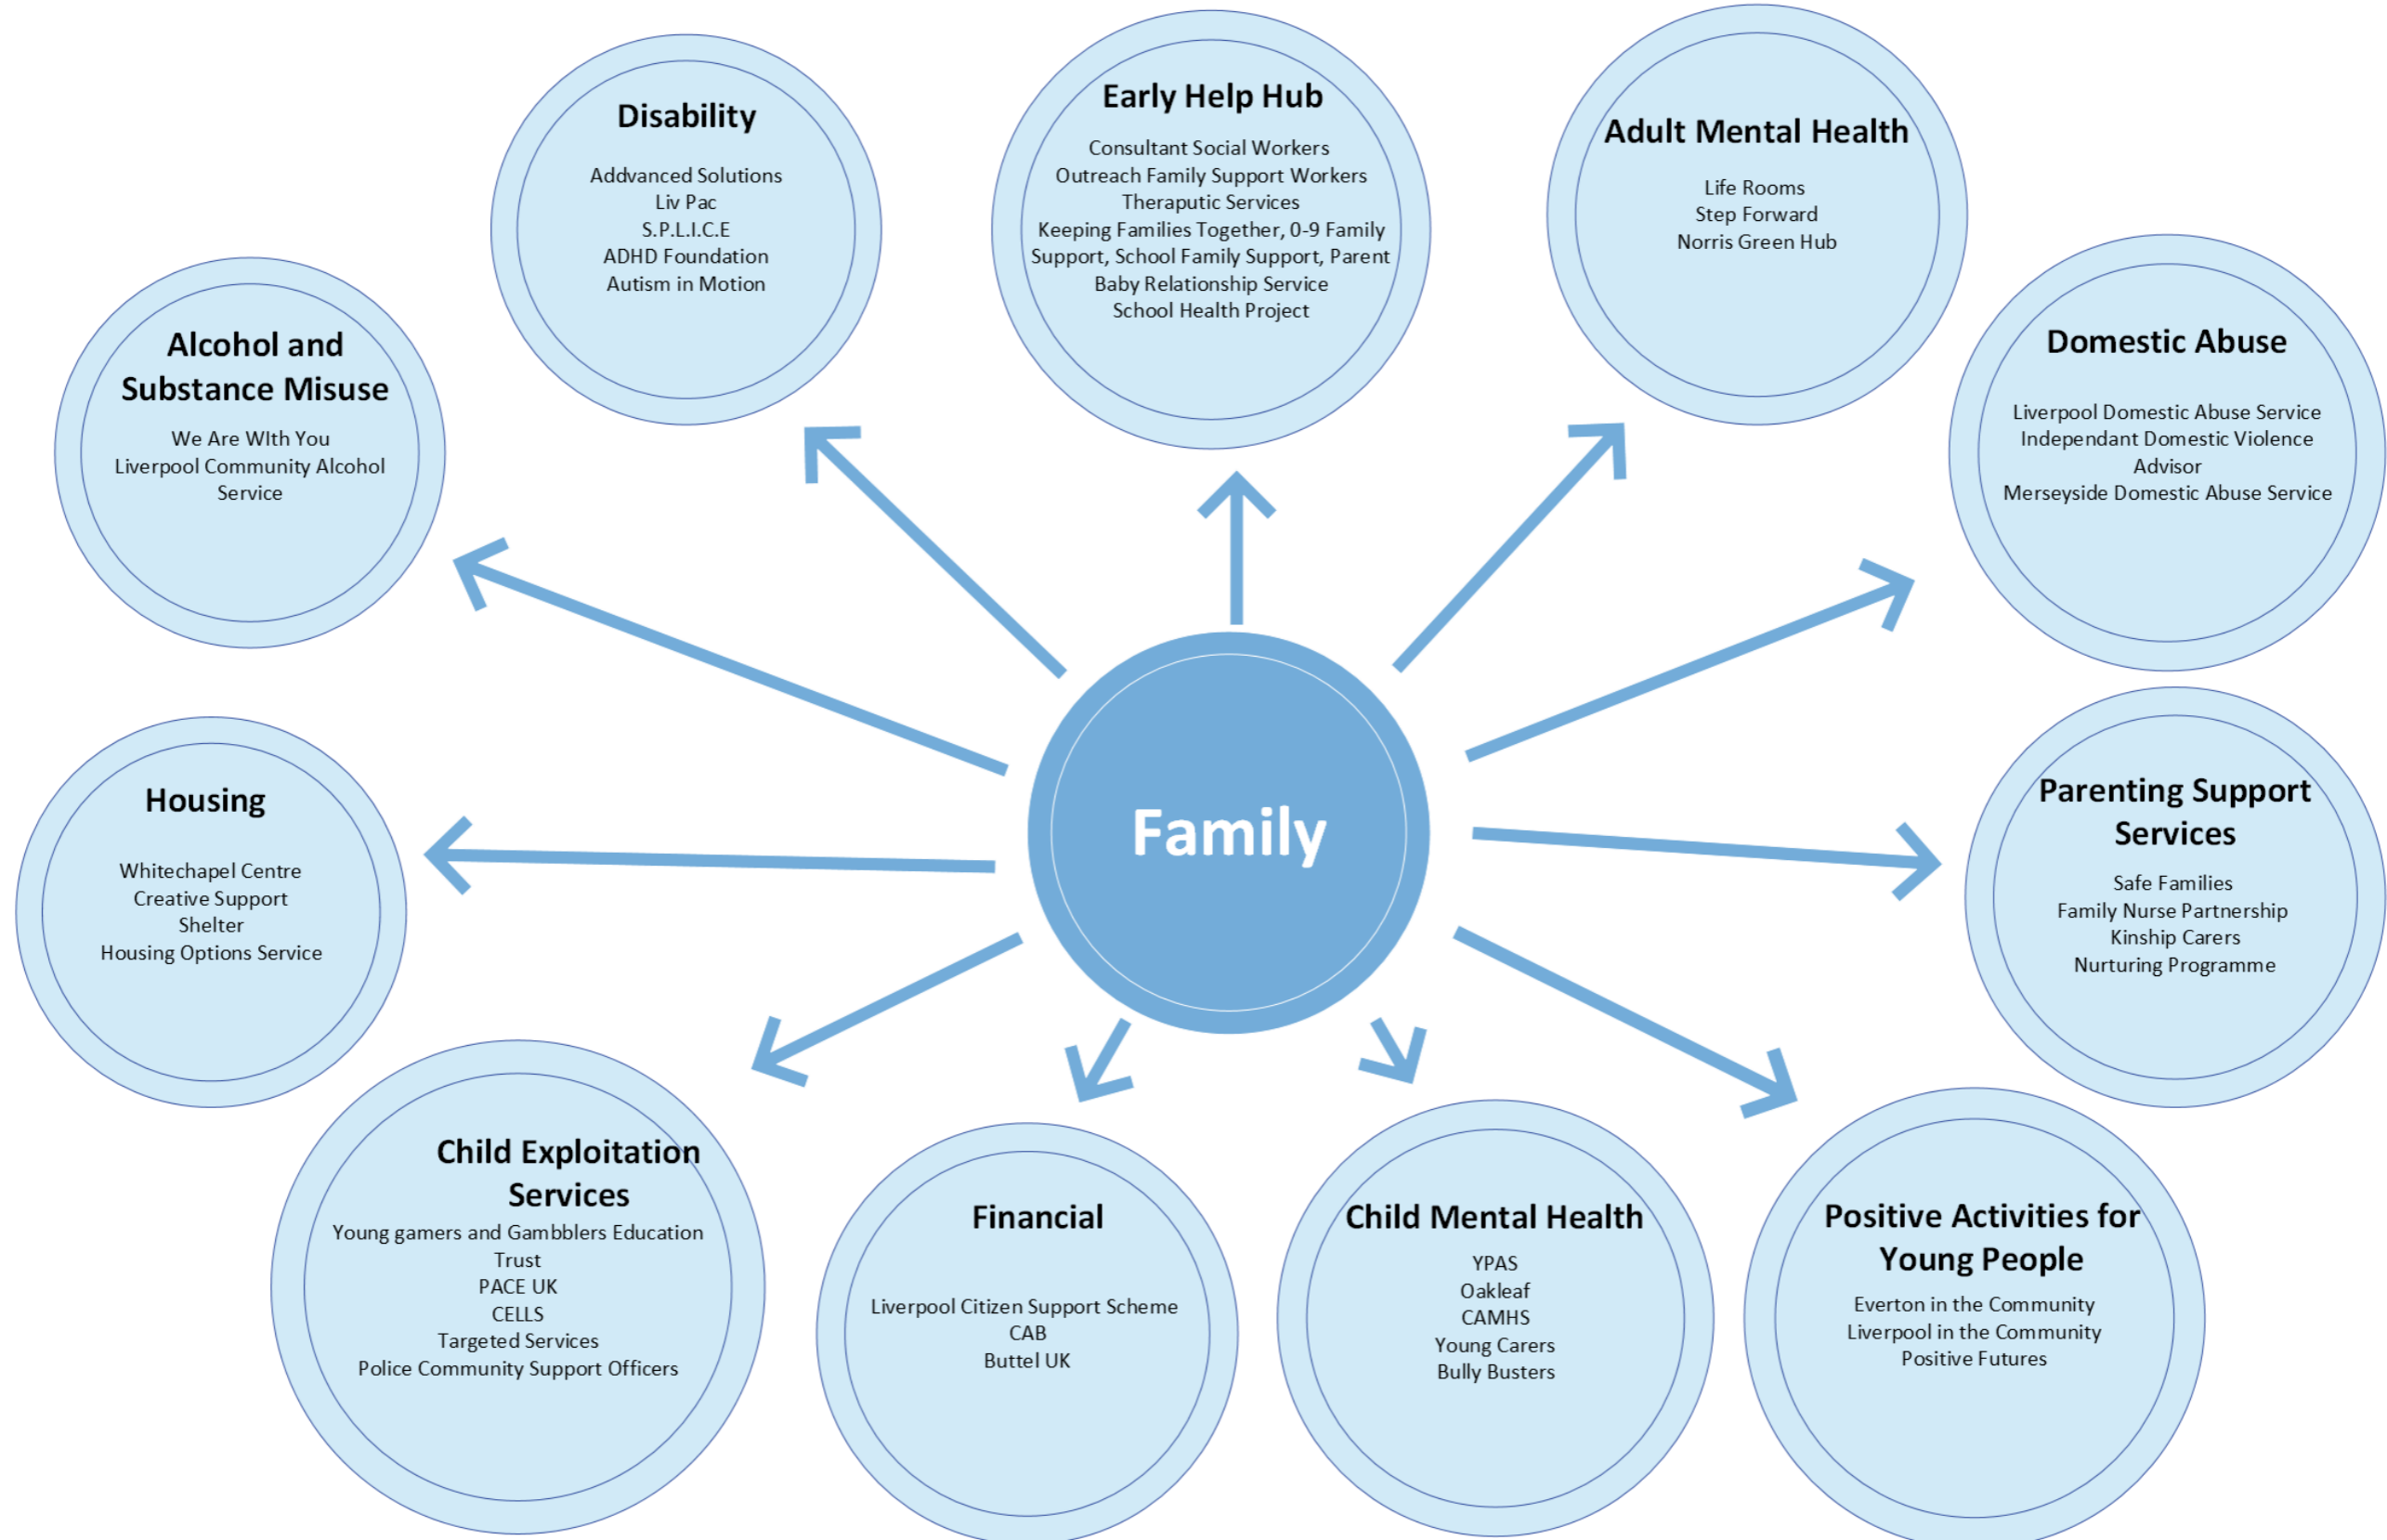

For queries about purchasing the service please contact Margie.johnson@liverpool.gov.uk

The family support workers complete Early Help Assessments and coordinate a plan of support via the Team Around the Family approach.

Referrals to the service can be made via SchoolsFamilySupportService@liverpool.gov.uk
